

Weekly Update

August 5, 2021

Share with others

This Sunday Pastor Steve Carter will continue our Summer Lights series asking the simple question, “how is life working for you?” Steve will open the Bible to explore how we can discover the beauty of the grace, peace and wholeness God has for us. He will teach from Esther 3 and from his new book, “The Thing Beneath the Thing,” which aims to help readers identify and heal from past wounds. To learn more about Steve and see a full list of series preachers, click here.

Join A Group

We invite you to explore how you can take a next step in your faith journey. Our Rooted groups will be forming soon. If you are interested in leading a Rooted group please reach out here.

Mark your calendars with these upcoming dates:
Neighborhood Gathering | Aug 11
Live Music featuring Kim Johnson
Neighborhood Gathering | Aug 18
Back to School Bash
Neighborhood Gathering | Sep 15
1/2 Way to St. Patrick's Day

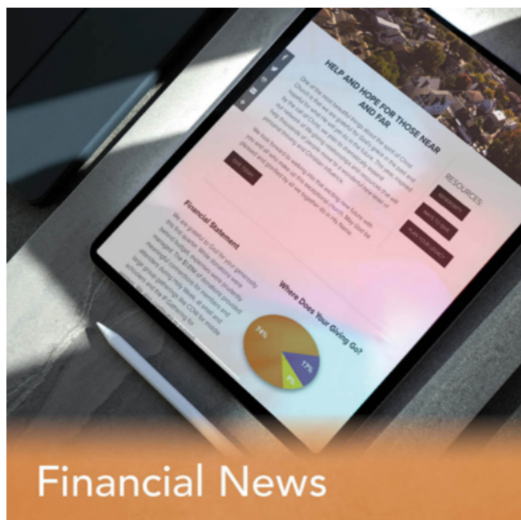

Serve With Us

We value generous service. There are so many ways you can serve our church family and our community. Look for our sign ups on Sundays and more details in future updates.

Family Worship

Mark your calendars for our next Family Worship, Sunday, August 22. Pastor Eric Camfield will preach live at our Butterfield campus as our entire church family gathers together.

Financial News

Our second quarter update is now available online here.

Support God's Work

We are grateful for your generous support. To give now, click here.

STAY CONNECTED | READ MORE ONLINE

