

Thanksgiving

Throughout the Scriptures we are invited by God to grow a heart of gratitude amid all that life might bring. With that as our hope and encouragement for one another, when you gather with others during this holiday season read the verse below aloud.

And give thanks for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

EPHESIANS 5:20

Share your thoughts on one or more of these questions. Invite others at your gathering to do the same. In so doing, hear how God can be found in all things.

- Share an experience from each season (fall, winter, spring, summer) this past year for which you are grateful.
- Share a moment from this year that brought you joy.
- Share a moment from this year that brought you tears.
- Share a place for which you are most thankful.
- Share a small blessing you often take for granted, but feel thankful for right now.
- Share how someone in your life—maybe around the table—has recently shown you unconditional love.
- Share the ways you have seen God's faithfulness in your life or in the lives of your family members.
- Share a memory from this year that you are especially grateful to have.
- Share with those around your table why you are grateful to have them in your life.
