CALL TO CONFESSION

COMMUNITY PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, may You hear our confession in light of the truth of the Scriptures. We open our hearts to You today. Therefore, we confess those moments this past week when our love was not sincere. Forgive us for putting ourselves above others this week, Lord, in how we talked, ignored, or neglected those You put in our path to serve. Lord, we admit how we allowed what we think about, what we watch, who we put our hopes in, to diminish our excitement of a life with You at the center by turning it into something about us. Lord, forgive us for our constant doubting of Your faithfulness in the midst of change, and for our inability to stay close to You as we face difficult times. Lord, knowing all the above is true, we join in prayer with the saints of old who also prayed: Don't hold our sins against us, but hold us up against our sins, so when our souls become aware of You, and each time we are awakened, may we be reminded not of our sins but of Your forgiveness. In Christ, we pray. Amen.
